Case # 2022-00032910*REPORT NARRATIVE

BPD-108 (rev. 03-29-2013)

NARRATIVE

SUMMARY: Acosta reported Cammas used his cell phone to record her while she was working which is a violation of the stay away no harassment order she has against him. Acosta wants these incidents documented.

INVESTIGATION: On 07/19/22 at approximately 1344 hours, Acosta called police to report Cammas violated her restraining order she has against him. This incident occurred at the YMCA low income housing building at 2001 Allston Way where Acosta is employed and Cammas is a resident.

Restraining Order number ; Acosta among other people as protected. It shows Cammas as the restrained. The stipulations of the order say Cammas is not to come within 5-yards of Acosta and to not harass her.

I contacted Acosta by telephone and obtained her information. She said she was working and giving out the mail. She said Cammas came out of his apartment and started filming her with his phone. She said this constitutes harassment. She is scared of him and what he may do in the future. She said Cammas went back inside his room where he remained.

On the previous incidents, I went to attempt contact with Cammas he refused to open the door and I am relegated to commanding through the closed door to stop contacting Acosta. These misdemeanor violations of the order do not rise to the level where we can force entry to affect an arrest. I recommended she communicate with her supervisors to have him evicted.

DISPOSITION: Acosta has called police to report Cammas has violated the order several times previously. Please reference BPD case number 22-31847 for further information.

Nothing further.
